

September 10, 2018 – British Columbia-- After a decade of leadership at Small Business BC, George Hunter, will step down as CEO on September 14th, 2018.

Since 2008, George led the transformation of Small Business BC through significant innovation and growth, enhanced delivery of services in alignment to changing needs of our stakeholders. Today, the organization is well poised for continued success, with a strong mandate and strategic plan, a dedicated team, and healthy finances.

According to George Hunter, “Leading SBBC over the last decade has been a wonderful and very rewarding experience for me. I leave knowing that an experienced and highly effective team of professionals who are committed to continuing the superb SBBC service model will be there to support small businesses across BC.”

We would like to take this opportunity on behalf of everyone at Small Business BC to thank him for his support. Please join us in wishing George tremendous success in his future endeavours. You can find Small Business BC, Board Chair, Katie Reich's announcement of this news here.
